

Coronary artery disease

For Group 2 licensing

if there is evidence of obstructive coronary artery disease on invasive or CT angiography or myocardial ischaemia on functional testing but it does not fall under any of the categories above, those individuals would need to meet the functional test requirements.

